

'Creative Inspirations 2008'

A Film Trailer Contest sponsored by The Capital Film Arts Alliance, The Sacramento Film and Music Festival, and the Sacramento Metropolitan Arts Commission

We are looking for the best and brightest new film talent!

Show us what you've got and what we can look forward to by creating a 3-5 minute 'trailer' for your upcoming feature film. It doesn't matter if the script or story has been written yet... Just create something that inspires the audience to want to see the feature film that you envision!

Are you dying to make a blockbuster horror film? An epic period piece? A crime drama? A romantic comedy? Or is the next Jack Ass-esque film on lighting farts and grocery cart races what you aspire to create? For a fraction of the budget, we want you to show us what you are capable of, and what we can expect of you in the future by sharing your creative endeavors in this competition. Who knows – maybe it's the tool you need to green light your upcoming film!

Entries will be screened and winners announced during the upcoming Sacramento Film and Music Festival, in August 2008 at the Crest Theatre.

Cash prizes will be awarded!!
